

Whether by initial intent or by bastardization, this clause retains the sprouted seeds of the worst of our country: human ownership through indentured servitude.