

The time for reparations is now. BIPOC have suffered disproportionately from the medical impact from Covid, with loss of jobs and income from the quarantine, and endured generational poverty stemming from slavery and from racism. Let's stimulate the economy through those that need and deserve it most!