

My Family and I live in Canby and enjoy our time on the water with our kids and relatives. Furthermore I work for a company that provides services like building and repair of marine construction such as docks, pile driving, and gangways. Not only would this measure take away crucial family fun and time, but also could jeopardize my job that provides for my family. Please come up with a better solution.

Regards,