

This is just one more proposed worthless gun law. It will add nothing to safety or crime prevention; it does, however have the strong possibility of making unwitting criminals out of ordinary citizens--which of course is the whole idea.

To say that I oppose it is a HUGE understatement!