

This legislation is so important to our community. We must try to prevent as many deaths as possible while still keeping the rights of gun owners. This is a small step in the right direction of making the world safer for all of us.