

The History of the US is rich and full of information that we as Americans can get excited about or not be happy about however it is still history and in the United States we are growing into the freedom and sovereignty of everyone here and future people to come so it is our responsibility to educate everyone especially our young people that growing as a country and doing better by ourselves and our fellow man that is why I feel it is important to support this bill so that we can continue to move forward and grow positively in our country.