

Dear Oregon House Committee on Energy and Environment,

It is my opinion that by December 2025 Oregon's land use planning laws must be made to address climate change and thereby mitigate the current environmental injustice to disadvantaged communities in our state.