

I live on the willamette River in Milwaukie.

I am opposed to the new proposed restrictions. The current laws are more than adequate they enforced.
We should not be limiting use to a small group at the expense of others.

If this is done it will only make it dangers in other areas