

I would like for my voice to be counted among those who oppose HB2734. This excise tax unfairly targets the wakeboat community. Additionally, this bill does not specify how these funds would be used.