

My family has used this part of the river for watersports that last 25 years. This is a devastating restriction that will negatively affect family's, businesses, and the next generation of boaters. The loading weight limit of 4,000 pounds would ban all watersports boats produced.