

I wholeheartedly support this bill as it opens the door for selling a food in it's most nutritious state with little to no risk when handled responsibly. Give people access to real food.