

As a paddler along the Willamette River, I have been endangered in the past by large motorboats moving along shallow areas that cause large wakes and can capsize boats. They kill the wildlife along the shore line and jepordize the safety of anyone in the area. Please limit the size of these boats to 4,000 pounds.