

This is only a step in the right direction. It's basically the bare minimum you can do for the houseless. My hope is that this continues the momentum to substantial reform. All of our community members deserve respect and support, not solely the ones with money.