

I have been a teacher for 20 years in the Portland Metro area. I have an 11-year-old son. I wholeheartedly support teaching the history of racism in Oregon and United States in K through 12 education. This must happen in order to create a just and equal society. We must face our racist past and present. If countries like Germany and South Africa could do it, so can we.