

I cannot believe we need a law to allow indigenous people to proudly express their heritage. Kids wear beads, necklaces and leis at graduation all of the time (when it is not even to express cultural pride). Please do the honorable thing and pass this legislation. Thank you!