

I am a user of the river with my kids for recreation. The restrictions do not make sense. Most of time we are going really slow. With these restrictions we will be forced to boat in other areas which will capacity constrain those areas