

I support creating an inclusive process to update the State song. The existing song overlooks indigenous community's and does not reflect the values of current Oregonians.