

To whom it may concern.

I am writing in opposition to the excise tax proposal of wakeboard boats. I cannot see how targeting a specific boat style is even considered legal. I have had and plan on continuing to purchase new wakeboard boats. This proposition that targeting specific boat manufactures is appears to be a prejudicial act and should not be allowed.

Thank you.

Ole Westrum