

I'm a opposite to this bill because it is singling out a one type of boat and isn't spread across the river users, for example isn't taking into account other demographic like kayakers and fishing boats.