

An excise tax (just another term for a sales tax, which Oregon isn't supposed to have) would make owning a boat unobtainable for many Oregon families. This would also cause many small, local, businesses to go under as it would affect boat dealers, accessories sales, marinas and fuel station. I strongly oppose this measure and any form of sales tax.