

i am against any towed water sports restrictions other than wake surfing. The wake surfers are the problem. If you ban the lower Willamette from hawthorn to waverly this will only push the wake surfers up river where the channel is narrower. This will cause the wake surfers to destroy all private docks.