I have answered your questions —

- ① I have not voted in the past because I received a felony when I was 18 yr old
- ② Handouts, internet
- ③ yes online, or by mail
- ④ Very much so
- ⑤ I would very much like for my voice to be heard
- ⑥ Isn't being american mean you have a right to vote / So what does that make me if I can't vote?
- ⑦ That would mean the world has changed for the better
- ⑧ People in prison are not dumb we do see the world for what it is. We I mean inmates in prison feel already like

Society just wants to throw us away.
Saying we can't vote makes me feel like
I am not wanted in my own country.
Society lets people vote that won't even support be in our country.
Everyone in this country that is here legally is an American should be able to vote felon or not —
