

This legislation is neither enforceable nor advisable.
It seeks to prevent ease of access to a primary means of self defense.
It can be used as pretext for illegal search and seizure.
It is poorly written and broadly interpretable.
At best, it is a well intentioned mistake.