

dont take this away from us this is disrespect to wake boat users there is not much to do in the summer in oregon and this is me and my familys favorite activities please yes we care for marine life but we want to have fun