

I urge you to consider not just updating the lyrics to "Oregon My Oregon" but holding a statewide contest for a new song to reflect a deeper view of Oregon history and a wider view of current day Oregon and Oregonians. We're much bigger and better than this!

Thank you!