

I am opposed to this measure because it imposes another unnecessary tax on consumers. I'm especially opposed since it is being imposed without being put to a vote. In the middle of a pandemic where entertainment options are limited for families, boating is a safe, socially distant activity people can enjoy. Not only is it good for fun, but also encourages physical and mental health which is essential in these trying times.