

It is time to change the lyrics of our Oregon State Song. Let's make it reflective of all of who we are, and no longer elevate fairest (whitest) people over everyone else. No longer glorify the theft of native lands we all live on. A contest would be a great idea, but even just changing the lyrics would be great.
2021 should move us in a more inclusive direction.