

Public waterways should stay just that - PUBLIC. Open to everyone. The enforcement of present rules and regulations should be the focus of any bill brought to you before banning certain boats and associated activities is even considered. I do not support this proposed bill.