

I oppose this bill, the waterways are public and we should be allowed to enjoy time outside on the water with our families playing. Not only that, it provides a lot of money to our economy - mechanics, gas, retailers for water sports, etc. It is also good for our mental health in a world where most everything else has been taken away.....it allows us to socially distance and provides a place away from electronics.