

Oppose please.

The party in charge for years I've watched the use of students in public schools being used politically via money pouring in from such celebrities as Oprah and George Clooney. Such a law would make public schools a lobbying and campaign center for the party in power.

No party should be doing this with the kids.