Re: I OPPOSE [SB 571]...WITH EXTREME PREJUDICE!.

Incarcerated felons should thank God hourly for access to; fresh air, potable water, food and other extravagances.

The following will happen sometime if [SB 571] passes.

Does the Committee support conferring voting privileges to convicted felons such as;

- A virulent "white supremacist" voting on Black Lives Matter racial equity demand issues?
- Pedophiles voting on Early Childhood issues?
- Arsonists voting on Wildfire and Recovery issues?
- Rapists voting on Healthcare?
- Cannibals voting on Behavioral Health issues?
- Embezzlers voting on Economic Development and Prosperity issues?
- Mafia bosses voting on Business and Labor issues?
- Construction fraudsters voting on Housing and Development issues?
- Judges who took bribes voting on Judiciary issues?
- Leftist politicians who took bribes voting on Modernizing the People's Legislature issues?
- A Public Utility Official who destroyed the energy grid voting on Energy and Environment issues?
- A terrorist who poisoned the water supply voting on Water issues?
- A former police officer who killed a black suspect voting on Equitable Policing issues?
- A deranged college professor recommended suicide to a failing student and the student committed suicide voting on Education issues?
- A pyramid scheme operator who stole tens of millions of dollars from contracted nonprofits and public benefit corporations, who helped the vulnerable populations, voting on Finance and Revenue issues?

I don't support convicted felons voting on any issue.

I hope I have made my position clear.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ David S. Wall
