

I am writing in support of this common-sense measure for secure storage of firearms. It does not infringe upon gun ownership, but will help address basic safety measures which should be followed by all gun owners.