

Having suffered a berry aneurysm in 1995 in Oregon, I am in full support of SB 700. There was a dearth of resources available to me at that time and I can only hope that many measures can be put in place to help those facing similar circumstances.