

Our company strongly supports the passing of this bill to increase knowledge base of professionals in organic agriculture to help rapidly shift our agricultural economy to more sustainable, profitable, and ecologically minded farming practices.