

Our current Oregon Forest Practices Act has not been adequate to protect critical drinking water resources for Oregonians. I am hopeful that we can blend science, common sense, and good old capitalism in ways that both benefit our hard working rural communities and protects our forested watersheds. This bill offers a way forward and deserves serious consideration and discussion.

Thanks for all of your service at our state capitol.
Regards,
Mary Lynn McConnell