

This bill is unnecessary, private schools should not be subject to further regulations from the state.