

Dear Oregon Legislature: September 2020 we had huge fires, and here on Chehalem Mtn we had a local forest fire, we were forced to evacuate for 5 days.
How can anybody even think of allowing marijuana processing with volatile chemicals on a bone dry mountain without firefighting water ?

This kind of processing belongs into an industrial area with plenty of firefighting resources.

Manfred Wiesel