

As a local small business owner we need all the extra support we can get. Pushing out back rent till September is the only way many of us are going to survive. Our landlords are not being very flexible with negotiating our rent. We were down 39% last year and have alot to catch up on to be in a comfortable spot financially. Its going to take us years to make up for that kind of loss.