

This is an effort to further undermine the freedoms and values held by American citizens and their families and falls entirely in line with "progressive" principles (of undermining the nuclear family and forcing compliance with the remarkably ignorant "woke" mob). Leave our schools alone, you've already made an mess of public education... keep your filthy mitts off organizations who are actually interested in true education.