

RE SB223

Please do not pass senate bill 223! This bill would take away a parent's choice to give their child a Christian education instead of the public school system. Parents must have the right to choose a private school that will teach the Christian values that they honor and want their children to learn. SB223 would take away this right and it is a threat to religious freedom!