

Oregon public schools are a mess with a 25-30% drop out rate and now the Democrat legislature want to penalize and regulate private schools. This is bill is unnecessary and an intrusion in private information for the students and private schools. It also impedes on the excellent teaching and administration of private schools.

If the legislature wants to do something to improve education, allow the firing for non performance of teachers and administrators that are not subject to union rules.