

Our hatcheries are in need of repair. With todays technology, hatch boxes are cost effective and provide the most natural process for supporting our declining fish populations. I am in support of HB 3150.