

Do not agree with this at all! We choose to put our children in private school for a reason and it should be our right as a private school to keep private school beliefs and values. This is so wrong!