

My wife and I feel this bill, when passed, will prevent the possibility of having the potential of a devastating fire in rural areas where water would not be available.