

I oppose Senate Bill 223. It is clear this bill is directed to change the core values, teachings and curriculum that private schools stand behind. Private schools do not receive funding from the State and thus should be able to continue as they are without any added oversight with ODE.