

I am opposed to House Senate Bill 223. Let people use their constitutional rights to protect parents choice to send their kids to private school without the state's unconstitutional restrictions.