

Our public school system is in shambles. Private schools are an option for those who want something different than public schools. We choose a private school because of what they offer and gives parent a different choice. Do not destroy the private school sector.