

I strongly support ranked choice voting at all levels of government as the best way to ensure that county officials are elected by the greatest number of voters.