

I do not support this blatant cloak and dagger maneuver to dictate every aspect of our lives. To deny our religious freedoms and to brainwash my children to your agenda. We are not hurting anyone and not all at private schools are wealthy elite. Some of us crawled through the mud to provide ours with a better education, and scratch a living in light of. This is nothing more than a power grab to indoctrinate our kids to your agenda, to make them subservient to your rule. I think we all agree that whenever government gets involved nobody advances, everybody is just dragged down. Absolutism, in any form, does not breed exceptionalism. On a side note I think most of you are just pissed because most private schools stayed open during this outbreak and none of you could do a damn thing, and it pisses you off. Despite your anthems of "it's all for the kids", it's really about you, it's about money and power. I don't hurt anyone, I don't bother or put down. I seek the best education and life for my kids that is why we send them there. This bill would not effect them positively. Only negative for them a positive for you. How can that be "for the kids"?
