

I oppose allocation from the General Fund to finance broadband service for one specific project when so much of rural Oregon is lacking broadband service.